

A warm and inviting living room scene. In the foreground, a light-colored sofa is adorned with several cushions in shades of beige, cream, and light blue. A wicker chair with a brown fur throw is positioned next to it. The background features a white vertical-slatted wall decorated with circular woven wall art and large, dried pampas grass arrangements. A wooden shelf holds a few decorative items, including a small glass candle holder. The overall aesthetic is bohemian and natural.
